Notice on the forecast of year-end dividend for the year ending March 31, 2007

Please be advised that Kubota Corporation (hereinafter “the Company”) has forecast the year-end dividend per ADS (American Depositary Share) for the year ending March 31, 2007 as follows:

(per ADS)

	Interim dividend	Year-end dividend	Annual dividend
This fiscal year ending March 31, 2007 (forecast)	¥25 (paid)	¥35	¥60
Comparable previous year ended March 31, 2006	¥20	¥30	¥50

The Company believes returning profit to shareholders is its important mission and executes it through providing stable, sustainable cash dividends, and repurchase and retirement of its own shares.

In order to advance these activities and considering the Company’s current business performance, the Company would propose ¥35 of the year-end dividend per ADS, an increase by ¥10 from interim dividend of ¥25.

Accordingly, the annual dividends for the year ended March 31, 2007 would be ¥60 per ADS, including the interim dividend of ¥ 25.

Note: Each American Depositary Share represents 5 shares of common stock.

< Cautionary Statements with Respect to Forward-Looking Statements >

This document may contain forward-looking statements that are based on management’s expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties, which are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual future results may differ materially from what is forecast in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation: general economic conditions in the Company's markets, particularly government agricultural policies, levels of capital expenditures, both in public and private sectors, foreign currency exchange rates, continued competitive pricing pressures in the marketplace, as well as the Company's ability to continue to gain acceptance of its products.
